Several Injured In Auto Smash.

Head on collision on Friday night caused injuries to several local people, when a car driven by Joe. Frasch of Acme smashed into a coupe driven by Nelson McLean on the highway, three miles north of Didsbury.

Frasch was seriously injured, sustaining a number of fractured ribs and it is reported a punctured lung.

The others injured were William Thompson and Nelson McLean. Thompson had a broken nose and other minor injuries while McLean's injuries were not serious. McLean was driving north to Olds in company with Roland Ahlgrim, Herb Ahlgrim and Wm. Thomson, all of Didsbury, four in the coupe. The other car was occupied by Joe and Art Frasch, of Acme, and Miss Ida Jahnke and Miss Edith Sleekemrier of Olds. The car was traveling south and had but one light. It is thought that this confused the other driver and the cars met full on with disastrous results. Garage men say they have never before seen cars wrecked so badly. Occupants of both cars were picked up by an Edmonton-Calgary bus and taken to the Didsbury General hospital. Mr. Thompson was able to leave the hospital on Monday but Mr. Frasch is still confined at the institution.

Owing to the large number of hospital accounts which the town has been asked to pay, on account of the non-payment thereof by the parties receiving treatment, the Town Council passed a resolution to the effect that before any person who is not a property owner being admitted to the hospital, he or she shall deposit at least the sum of $20 as security for payment of the account to be incurred to the hospital.

Santa Claus Comes To Town

Santa Claus came to town on Saturday and the Builders Hardware had the busiest time they ever experienced. Santa was advertised to appear at 11 o'clock but kiddies started to gather at the store shortly after 8 o'clock in the morning and by the time he arrived the store and street was crowded with children from all parts of the district. Over 500 packages of treats were handed out to the children during the morning.

In the afternoon the opera house, which was rented by the hardware company was crowded with children and their parents when a free show of the talking picture, Rin Tin Tin and the Frozen River and several comedies was exhibited. Mr. Speelman says that Santa Claus day was the biggest success he has experienced and he intends to make it an annual affair.

Obituary.

It is with regret, we report the death of Ada Jane, wife of Mr. A. V. Buckler, which took place in Didsbury Hospital on Friday, Nov. 29th, after about a month's illness.

The funeral service was held in St. Cyprian's Anglican Church, on Sunday afternoon, Rev. W. J. Archer officiating. There was a large attendance of neighbors and friends, and many beautiful floral tributes were sent.

Mrs. Buckler was 51 years of age, and was born in London, England. She came to Canada 21 years ago, and for 2 years resided in Halifax, coming to Didsbury 19 years ago, where she has since resided. She was married, 15 years ago, to Mr. Albion V. Buckler, and one child, Kathleen, was born of the union.

Mrs. Buckler was a member of St. Cyprian's Church, and took a deep interest in the Women's Auxiliary, and other church work. Her loss will be deeply regretted by her many friends and neighbors.

Besides her husband, there survive to mourn her loss, her daughter Kathleen, her step-children: Mr. Dave Buckler, of Cochrane, Wallace and Jack, of Innisfail, Mrs. W. Prendergast, of Innisfail, Mrs. John Rowntree, of Carstairs, and Della, of Didsbury. She also leaves one brother, of London, England.

Mrs. E. Y. Woods brought into the Pioneer Office on Tuesday morning, a turkey-egg, laid on the 29th November. This is an unusually late date for such eggs to be laid, and we wonder if any other local turkey-raisers have had eggs quite as late as this. The egg is on view in the Pioneer Office.

Coming Events

What Have You Learned About Life?

A world-wide organization of men recently conducted a contest, requesting letters on the subject: "What Have I Learned About Life?" Numerous replies were received, and the writer of this column feels that he cannot do better this week than pass on one of the prize winning essays. It is brief, and to the point, and reads:

"I used to drive my father's car on the country roads. While bouncing along over the rough ruts on the right side, the left part of the road always appeared more inviting; but once on that side I inevitably found it just as rough or worse.

This is the first lesson I have learned about the roadway of life. The other side is deceiving. The boy longs to be a man, and the old man glorifies the golden days of his youth. The poor yearns to be rich, while a larger income consistently calls for more expense. But the successes and gains of life are not in the future or the past, nor in the other man's back yard. They lie within our own reach at the present time and in the present conditions. Life has lined us up for an even start.

The second thing I have learned about life is that God hasn't finished the job. We rejoice in the accomplishments of science, religion and social relationships, but yet in the crowded ways of life we find vile strife, unbrotherliness, political corruption and the curse of a maladjusted industrial order. Civilization is in its infancy, and its growth will depend on us of the present generation. There are still new worlds for men to conquer.

It doesn't take long for one to learn that there is no getting by in the long run of life. Being born into the world with this or that fortune or pedigree does not guarantee that one shall have a sturdy character and a personality that shines like the morning sun. Regardless of where a man starts in life those things of lasting value, education, religion, business power, a strong and virile physique and a happy home life are obtained only by long hours of patient and arduous toil and self-discipline which alone are the harbingers of a radiant and masterful personality. There are no sales and charge accounts in the market places of life. The price of the best is constant.

Finally I have learned that there is enough happiness in life to go around. No man is cut off from his heritage of happiness even though it be interspersed with hardships and sorrows. To be able to see the vision of life's task in spite of the cramped quarters of a small job; to find outlet of soul and character in stooping to help a brother while persecuted by others; to rejoice in the exaltation of personality while crushed in the wheels of industrialism; and to be happy in a great and thrilling quest with the fresh dawn of each immortal day—this is the major lesson of life.

Shipping Asbestos To Japan

About Eighty Per Cent. Used Is Produced In Canada

The market in Japan for asbestos in lump, powder and fibre, as well as in packing and other forms is increasing year by year owing to the expansion of industrial plants using this material and to the great variety of uses to which asbestos products are being put in everyday life," according to James A. Langley, commercial secretary to the Canadian Legation at Tokyo, Japan, in an article in the October issue of the Commercial Intelligence Journal.

About 80 per cent. of the asbestos used in Japan comes directly from Canada, a small percentage from Russia and the balance through one or two English concerns interested in the African asbestos deposits. The demand for asbestos powder and fibre runs to about 12,000 tons.

Prominent Ranchers Send High Class Animals To Old Country

Jack Byers, Sr., livestock promoter, attached to the Dominion Department of Agriculture, has taken a trainload of range steers, two, three and four years olds which were contributed by a number of prominent ranchers of Saskatchewan and Alberta, as a trial shipment of high-class cattle to the Old Country markets.

The shipment is being supervised by the Federal Department of Agriculture from loading to market. Mr. Byers sailed from Montreal to Manchester on October 30.

Veteran Government Worker

Walter Todd Has Served In Civil Service For More Than Half a Century

Walter Todd, for more than half a century clerk of committees and private bills for the House of Commons, died at Ottawa recently in his 74th year. His illness had been of brief duration.

The 57 years Mr. Todd spent as a government worker made him, in point of continuous service, one of the oldest members of the civil service. He succeeded his father to the position of clerk of committees in 1874.

In addition to the coincidence that father and son gave many years to the same post in the service of their country, one other peculiar incident stood out similarly in both their lives. In 1848 when the Parliament buildings, then situated in Montreal, were fired by an angry mob during the agitation which followed introduction of the Rebellion Losses' Bill, Mr. Todd's father cut the portrait of Queen Victoria from its frame while the structure about him was in flames.

In 1916 when the Parliament buildings at Ottawa again went up in flames, Walter Todd cut the same portrait of her late majesty from its frame and once again the canvas was saved by a Todd.

Guard the Children From Autumn Colds

The Fall is the most severe season of the year for colds—one day is warm, the next cold and wet, and unless the mother is on her guard, the little ones are seized with colds that may hang on all winter. Baby's Own Tablets are mothers' best friend in preventing or banishing colds. They act as a gentle laxative, keeping the bowels and stomach free and sweet. An occasional dose of the Tablets will prevent colds, or if it does come on suddenly their prompt use will relieve the baby. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Newspaper Convention

Provincial Meeting In B.C. Of Journalists On Daily and Weekly Publications

A provincial convention of the men and women who are engaged in the editorial departments of the daily and weekly press of British Columbia, the first of its kind in Canada, is planned for a late week-end in February, preliminary arrangements having been made at a meeting of the provincial executive committee of the B.C. Institute of Journalists, held in Vancouver.

The convention will coincide with the annual dinner of the Vancouver branch, which will act as host to the out of town members who are expected to assemble from all parts of the province.

Uses Of Volcanic Dust

Volcanic dust is mainly used in the manufacture of cleansers, scouring powders, and abrasive soaps, but latterly, outside Canada, there has been an increasing demand for its use as an admixture in cement and plasters. Volcanic dust beds up to thirty feet thick are being worked near Swift Current, Saskatchewan. There are other beds in British Columbia.

GET RID of your dread of pain after eating. Eat without fear of "indigestion," sour stomach, disagreeable gas or headaches.

When your food ferments, "disagrees," lies like a lump in your stomach, it's a sign of too much acid. You need not resort to crude methods—take instead an anti-acid that will correct the condition. Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

A spoonful of this pleasant-tasting, soothing fluid neutralizes many times its volume of acid. It restores the proper alkaline balance to an acid-soaked stomach and bowels—assists these organs to function as they should.

Phillips' Milk of Magnesia is what you need when a bad breath, coated tongue, headaches, nausea or biliousness indicates an over-acid condition. Take a spoonful today and for several days and see how it sweetens the system. You won't be nearly so liable to colds or sickness. All drug stores—in 50c bottles.

Dairy Production Increases

Increasing Demand For Dairy Stock In Prairie Provinces

"Statistics of dairy production at the present time indicate that there is an appreciable increase in milk and cream production all over Canada at the present time," observes Dr. J. A. Ruddick, Dairy Commissioner of the Dominion Department of Agriculture. With respect to butter production Ontario and Alberta show a 15 per cent. increase for the first six months of the production year. Cheese production, of which 97 per cent. is centered in Ontario and Quebec, was 30,000 boxes behind last year as at October 11. One of the interesting features in the dairy industry at the present time is the increasing demand for dairy stock in the Prairie Provinces.

Postage Stamp Changes

New Color To Be Adopted In Printing New Issue

Fall styles in postage stamps will show a radical change in color scheme. Within a month, or sooner, if present stocks are exhausted, a new issue of stamps up to the eight cent denomination will be released by Canada's Post Office Department. Basic colors will be changed in conformity with regulations of the Universal Postal Union, of which Canada is a member.

The one cent stamp will change its "dress" from orange to green; the two cent stamp will be red in place of green as at present; the mauve five cent stamp will make way for one of blue and the eight cent postal carrier will give up its blue color for a modish orange.

Marketing Grain Through Livestock Production Will Solve Problem Of Western Farmer

Whether to sell grains through livestock or for cash has been a question much discussed in the past. The question of the effect of concentration production on the sale of grains for cash has now been pretty well settled. What about selling them through livestock? Particularly attractive features about selling grains for cash have been the relatively low amount of labor and skill involved and the rapidity with which the cash could be secured. But this latter advantage has disappeared and now it is a question of whether we shall do the work and learn the skill.

Attaining skill costs money, but it should not be charged into costs of producing, say, hogs. It is an investment which will always return big interest. It is largely a matter of will and intelligence.

Many farmers can feed considerable numbers of livestock without increasing the amount of money ac-production comes in. Such results are the reward of a steady policy persistently carried out over the years.

The farmer who has steadily added to his equipment and skill is this year not worrying about the low price of grains. Rather he is benefiting by it. Even in the years of the highest priced grains he still has averaged a fair margin over grain prices. Sometimes it is necessary to feed hogs for returns that do not exceed the cash values of feed grains, but one thing that should sink into the minds of every person interested in the livestock industry is the utter foolishness of reducing breeding stock because of a temporary condition.

It will be understood that while the accompanying tables give the feeding value per bushel of wheat, oats, and barley separately it is, of course, advisable to feed them mixed one with the other. A good ration for growing pigs would be equal weights of wheat,

Grain Values When Fed to Hogs

In the table below is shown the value of a bushel of wheat, barley, and oats when fed to hogs at the rates of 500 lb., 450 lb., 400 lb., and 375 lb., to produce 100 lb. of hog when the selling price of hogs ranges from $10 to $6 per 100 lb. For instance, in the first line of the table it will be seen that when hogs are selling at $10 per 100 lb., wheat fed in the ratio of 5 lb. to make a pound of hog would have a resultant value to the farmer of $1.20 a bushel, barley a value of 96 cents, and oats a value of 68 cents. The tables form a sort of conversion table or ready reckoner of values and are to be read in that manner.

When 500 lb. of Feed are used to produce 100 lb. of Hog.

Hogs at	Wheat	Barley	Oats

tually paid out for labor. The others must choose whether they will utilize a part of their labor in making the bushels of grain that they raise produce a better average income than they can get for them when cashed in as grain. Much of the idle time of farmers, especially in winter, can with proper management, be well utilized in feeding livestock.

In the accompanying tables is given the value of a bushel of grain when fed to hogs. A range of prices for hogs is given and a range of quantities fed to produce a hundred pounds of pork. Two things stand out in these tables. The one is that at a price as low as $6.00 per 100 lbs. for hogs, which is lower than prices have been for many years, barley, oats and the poorer grades of Western wheat will still yield very good values indeed per bushel. The other outstanding feature is that skill and management can largely increase the price per bushel received for grain when it is sold through hogs.

Under the worst conditions the feed cost of hogs should not exceed 500 lb. to each 100lb. of hog produced. Under reasonably good management the quantity should not exceed 450 lb. Where, as in the East, milk supplements are available, 100 pounds of hog are being produced by many farmers with the equal, including the milk, of 400 lb. of grain, while some men with very good breeding stock and skilful feeding are using even less. This is where one (but only one) of the big features of cost of oats, and barley, and, for finishing, a bushel each of the same grains. Any one of the grains fed alone would not have its maximum value. Furthermore, the tables are not intended to be absolute, but are indicative of the values that may be obtained from grain when fed to hogs. In view of the price levels to which grain has been reduced they are emphatically suggestive of the wisdom of a policy that includes in its programme the steady, persistent maintenance of a considerable production of livestock on every grain farm.

Fifth Biennial Conference Of British Empire Service League To Be Held In Canada In 1931

South African Wheat Pool

Formed With the Object Of Organizing the Wheat Industry

A wheat pool for South Africa has been established with headquarters in Capetown, according to advice received by the Department of Trade and Commerce, Ottawa. The new wheat pool was organized as a result of a meeting in Pretoria recently of representatives of the Transvaal Free State, Eastern Province and Western Province.

The organization will be registered under the Co-Operative act, and is the culmination of deliberations of a committee appointed at the farmers' conference in January, with the object of organizing the wheat industry. The object of the scheme is to stabilize prices so that ultimately South Africa will produce sufficient wheat to meet its own demands. Millers of the country are reported to be in unanimous agreement with the project. The price paid for wheat will be according to grade, calculated more or less on value of Australian wheat, and prices will be established towards December in accordance with ruling world prices.

It is considered, according to the report received, that there will be no danger that the stabilization of the price of wheat will affect the price of bread as it requires at least eight shillings a bag for wheat before the price of bread will be increased and this is not considered likely to occur.

B.C. Apples Win Cup

Finest All-Round Exhibit At Imperial Fruit Show

High honors in the Imperial Fruit Show in London, England, have been won by British Columbia apples exhibited by the Associated Growers of the Okanagan Valley in competition with fruit from all over Canada, according to cable advices received by the B.C. Department of Agriculture.

The British Columbia fruit has been awarded the cup presented by the agent-general of all Canadian provinces in London, England, for the finest all-round exhibit. This trophy was won by Nova Scotia last year. The award is based on the total marks received by all classes of fruit shown by any exhibitor.

Manitoba University

The University of Manitoba, at present situated in the heart of Winnipeg, is to move to the outskirts of the city on the site of the Manitoba Agricultural College, five miles south of Winnipeg. Work has begun on the erection of a new arts' building to cost over $416,000. The Agricultural College buildings are an imposing pile, representing an expenditure of $4,000,000.

Representatives of all the returned soldier organizations of the Empire will meet in Canada next August, when the fifth biennial conference of the British Empire Service League will be held, it was announced at Ottawa, by Lieut.-Col. L. R. LaFleche, Dominion president of the Canadian Legion.

Led by Earl Jellicoe, admiral of the fleet and presiding officer of the league, delegates will come from the British Isles, South Africa, Australia, New Zealand, and from every corner of the far-flung Empire.

In making the announcement, Col. LaFleche said the only definite plan was that the meetings would be held at such a time and in such cities as to permit the whole delegation taking part in the Warrior Day celebration of the Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto.

When the last biennial conference of the British Empire Service League was held in London, England, in 1929, Canada sought the next gathering. There was competition for this honor from other Dominions and a decision was withheld. Col. LaFleche has now received a cablegram announcing Canada's invitation had been accepted. Earl Jellicoe presided at the meeting in London, England, which made the decision.

At the London conference 23 countries in the Empire were represented and it is expected there will be at least that number that will send delegates to next year's gathering. The British Empire Service League is an organization of returned veterans, branches of which are in every part of the Empire. The Canadian branch goes under the name of the Canadian Legion. The conference will be the largest gathering of returned soldiers ever held in Canada.

Definite arrangements for the event will not be announced for some time, Col. LaFleche said. More or less tentative plans were made when the invitation was extended in 1929, but they now will have to be changed in some respects because of intervening events.

How Time Is Spent

Frenchman Has Been Investigating and Gives Some Interesting Figures

A Frenchman with a liking for curious figures has been counting up the time that a man ordinarily devotes to common occupations of life. He finds that a man of seventy has usually spent about nineteen years working, twenty-three years in bed, nine years amusing himself or being amused, one year in church, and two years shaving himself. This last portion of time he seems to consider as one of the great wastes of life. But trying to imagine what we should look like if we all had beards we are not inclined to agree with him. Even if we did all save some time from shaving there isn't any real guarantee that we would put that time to any better uses.

New Air Mail Service

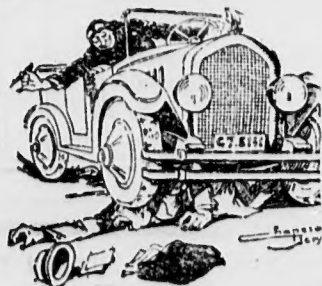

Announcement was made by the postmaster-general's department of the inauguration of a regular air mail service between Peace River and North Vermilion, Alberta. The route will be via Carajou and Fort Vermilion. No definite date for the first flight was made, but it will take place early in December.

GET BUSY

We heard a good definition of an optimist the other day: "A man who sees in every adversity some opportunity."

In these days of adverse business conditions is every man's opportunity to show his colors. Have we faith in ourselves and faith in this great and glorious country? Then don't sit back and let the other fellow start the ball of prosperity rolling. Each of us must do our bit.

Throw aside that business mourning band and use a brass band instead. There was never anything so good that it could not be improved upon, and the worse things are, the more chance there is for improvement. Here's our opportunity (yours and ours).

Prosperity doesn't always mean having a "good time" in the modern sense of those two words, but with the right spirit you will really enjoy buckling down to business at hand, devoting time and energy to it, developing it and gradually seeing it expand.

To bring back prosperity our country needs sane thinking, every man with his shoulder to the wheel, and wise spending.

It's the fellow who faces the sun who sees no shadow. Let's face the Sun of Prosperity.

Let's get busy, everybody push and start the old ball rolling, then watch it get momentum and gather as it rolls.

We are here to serve you, to do what we can to help Prosperity and to further Better Business.

ON TIME

Now that the school calls at nine o'clock every morning, in many a home, both city and country, there is a grand and glorious scramble and rush to get the children off in time.

Some boys and girls never do acquire that most valuable of habits—punctuality—and they go through life trying to catch up and never getting there. Looking at lateness from the point of view of the teacher and classroom, it is one of the unpleasant and unpardonable annoyances that take the joy out of the day.

Looking at it from a health standpoint the child with his breakfast bolted and his appetite unsatisfied makes a poor pupil. He starts the day handicapped.

The remedy is a simple one and holds the secret of a life's success. Examine a set of rules of the health game of the Junior Red Cross and it will be seen that one refers to sleeping. Going to bed on time is the key to the situation of being on time at school. This is too valuable a habit to be ignored. Let every mother have a set of health rules in the home. Write for your free copy to Junior Red Cross, Civic Block, Edmonton.

LOCAL & GENERAL

A box of ten Christmas Cards, envelopes to match, and seals. All for One Dollar at the Pioneer Office.

Mr. Frank McDonald, purchased a pure-bred jersey bull from the Clark herd this week.

Miss Eva Jagoe, of Lacombe, who was formerly a teacher in Didsbury, was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Clarke last week-end.

Rev. J. H. Curtis, of Olds, will hold a service in Westcott Baptist Church at 7.45 p.m., Sunday, December 7th. The pastor will be glad to see as many of the Westcott friends as can attend.

The Old Time Dance which was given by the Hockey Boys, proved to be a great success and the attendance proved that the old time dances are still popular. The blanket raffle which was held during the evening was won by Mr. Ward Wyman. The boys netted a profit of over $80 which will put the treasury in a good shape for the beginning of the season.

The ice for both the skating and curling rinks, is getting in good shape and if the weather holds, both curling and skating will be the order for next week. The alterations made at the skating rink have made a considerable improvement to the skating area and both the skaters and hockey players will enjoy better facilities than any previous year. However some improvement could still be made for the convenience of the spectators and if this was attended to Didsbury could well be proud of its open air rink.

The new 10 room school at Olds was opened for occupation last week. The size of the building over-all is 140ft. x 77ft., and houses 10 classrooms, each to accommodate 40 pupils, three teachers rooms, a spacious auditorium 42x62, with 20 feet of space separating the floor from the ceiling. At each end of the school there are dressing-rooms, and two shower baths. Olds has long needed a new school, and they are now to be congratulated in possessing a really modern school building.

There has been activity at the air-port, which is being established on the farm of Joe. Rosenbargo in the Mayton district. The air-port covers an area of 60 acres, the space marked out being half mile long and 60 rods wide. Workmen have just completed laying an electric cable which has been placed underground at a depth of about eight inches, and when connected with the electric power line, which work is now in progress, electricity for the illumination of the air-port will be connected with the main power line at a point near the Leach farm.—Olds Gazette.

The strength of a bank is determined by its history, its policy, its management and the extent of its resources. For 113 years the Bank of Montreal has been in the forefront of Canadian finance.

Nipigon trout, known all over the continent as the gamest of game fish, are coming into the spotlight again according to reports from the famous Ontario resort where the annual contest for the largest speckled trout is now in full swing and will continue until September 14. The best entry to date is a 5½-lb. fish, measuring 22 inches in length and 14 in girth taken with a single spinner with fly, on a 9½-foot rod, by Edmund Stalter, of Paterson, N. J., July 29.

The second annual Sea Music Festival of the Pacific Coast passed into history January 19th when once again capacity houses greeted the final offerings. Outstanding among the features were the two ballad operas, "The Order of Good Cheer", incorporating French-Canadian sea chantey of the 16th century, and "Bound for the Rio Grande", a rollicking sea-song playlet by Captain Frederick Wallace. Each of these was repeated by request on three successive days.

Annual Bible Socy. Meet

Sunday last was observed as Bible Society Day by the Evangelical, Mennonite, and United Churches of Didsbury. Rev. H. D. Marr, B.A., of Calgary, was the special speaker at the three services, and large, appreciative congregations heard his message.

The annual meeting of the local branch was held in Knox United Church at the close of the evening service, and was well-attended by the representatives of the different churches.

The president, Mr. Dan Dippel, accepted the chair, and Mr. J. V. Berscht gave a gratifying report of the year's work. He stated that contributions for 1929 amounted to $385.50, and two new life-members, representing $50.00, were added to the list, making the number five.

Rev. H. D. Marr addressed the meeting, and the following officers were elected: president: Mr. Dan Dippel; vice-presidents: the resident clergy in the town; secretaries: Mr. J. V. Berscht; collectors: Mrs. Dr. Clarke, Mrs. W. J. McCoy, Mrs. Rieder, Mrs. Rennie, Mrs. I. Burkholder, Mrs. W. Morton, and Mr. Theo Reist.

The following resolution, moved by Rev. A. Traub, seconded by Rev. A. E. Hayes, was unanimously carried by a standing vote: "That the cordial thanks of this meeting be extended to the above-named collectors for their faithful and efficient services to the Bible Society. The splendid success of the year's work in Didsbury, has been largely due to these voluntary workers, and their services are most heartily appreciated both by the local committee, and the auxiliary board in Calgary."

The annual canvass was arranged for, and will be conducted in the usual way.

The work of the British & Foreign Bible Society in translating the Bible into all languages, is recognized not only as fundamental, but indispensable to every christian enterprise throughout the world. All churches depend upon it for the scriptures used in every mission-field, and these are supplied by the Society, free of cost. This work grows, as civilization extends into the remote places of the world. 12,125,290 volumes of the scriptures were translated and circulated by the Society last year, in 630 languages, and a new language is added to the list, every six weeks.

All immigrants coming to Canada are given at the port of landing, a copy of the gospel in their own language, and thousands in this way, receive it for the first time.

Reassuring Statement By Bank of Montreal.

The annual report of the Bank of Montreal—with its many reassuring features—makes its appearance at a most opportune time. Naturally, with disturbed conditions in every country of the world, many are endeavoring to obtain a better understanding of underlying conditions throughout Canada.

On this account, it will be gratifying to find that the premier bank of the Dominion has been able to submit to its shareholders a report that shows the Bank has fully maintained its characteristically strong position. "It was to be expected, in view of general conditions that there would be some falling off in the volume of business handled and perhaps in profits. It is, therefore, encouraging to note that for the last six months of the fiscal year the Bank has been able to show gains in several of its principal departments, to further add to its usual position of strength by an increase in liquid assets to almost 60 per cent of total liabilities to the public, and at the same time report to its shareholders profits ample to take care of the regular dividends and bonus; to apply $4000,000 to bank premises and

Adds Thrill To Sport

Ski Runner Can Fly With New German Invention

Some of the thrills of flying are added to the winter sport of skiing with a pair of wings worn by the ski runner. The wings made of aluminum by a German inventor, are nineteen feet from tip to tip and enable the wearer to take short flights in the air after gaining sufficient momentum on the skis. They are so constructed that the ski rider is virtually seated in the centre of them when he leaves the ground. They are movable from a horizontal position and easily controlled, enabling the rider to change direction of flight.

Canada Has Valuable Fur Farming Industry

Over Sixteen Million Dollars Invested In Fur Bearing Animals

Fur farming in Canada is now established as a leading industry. The latest available figures show that the industry today represents a capital value of $22,980,617, of which $16,401,453 is invested in fur-bearing animals.

Ten years ago the total value of fur-bearing animals on fur farms in Canada was placed at $4,723,105. The industry today represents a capital investment of practically four times as much as in 1920. The silver fox heads the investment list with a capital investment of $14,922,378—an increase of $10,400,000 over 1920. The next from the standpoint of investment value is the muskrat, which now represents an investment of about $600,000. With a capital investment of $328,928 the mink comes next. This is an increase of 50 per cent. over the preceding year and of $324,153 over 1920. The otter, coyote, silver blue fox and beaver are other newcomers to the fur industry.

Weak After Operation

"I was very weak after an operation. My nerves were so bad I would sit down and cry and my husband would not go out and leave me alone. Now my nerves are much better, thanks to a booklet that was left under the door. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound surely put me on my feet. I have taken eight bottles. My friends tell me I look fine. My sister has taken this medicine too."—Mrs. Annie Walton, 67 Stanley St., Kingston, Ontario.

Aid For the Needy

Concerted Action To Be Taken In Saskatchewan To Relieve Distress

"Concerted action will be taken by the Provincial Government, the Saskatchewan Red Cross, the Saskatchewan Wheat Pool and the United Farmers of Canada, Saskatchewan section, to help relieve distress existing in the province due to present financial depression," Mrs. Pearl Johnston, president of the women's section of the U.F.C. and convener of the organization's relief committee, stated at Saskatoon. The government has given a grant of approximately $10,000 to the Red Cross Society, which will be expended in the purchase of clothing from wholesale houses for children of school age in dried-out portions of the province, and will endeavor to get the railways to reduce rates on fuel and vegetables shipped in to relieve distressed areas, she said, "while the Wheat Pool and the United Farmers will collect used clothing from their memberships and distribute throughout the province."

This work would be carried out from two relief depots, one in Regina and one in Saskatoon. The Wheat Pool relief committee, consisting of A. J. Moffatt, A. F. Sproule and H. Marsh, would circularize all of its local committees and the U.F.C. would follow a similar procedure with all of their local lodges.

The Wheat Pool has offered to pay freight on all parcels of second-hand clothing sent in for distribution and also on all outgoing parcels shipped to needy families.

Gold Production Increasing

Canada Will Likely Take Second Place This Year

The prospects are that Canada will this year advance into second place among the gold producing countries of the world. South Africa holds first place and the United States second. Last year the value of gold produced in Canada was approximately $40,000,000. This year it is expected the value will be about $60,000,000. Almost without exception the larger mines in Northern Ontario, the principal source of gold production in the Dominion, are expanding their output. Besides the straight gold producers there are several copper mines that add an important quota of gold as a by-product. Within the next year it is likely that Manitoba will play an important role in gold production.

Asthma Victims. The man or woman subject to asthma is indeed a victim. What can be more terrifying than to suddenly be seized with paroxysms of choking which seem to fairly threaten the existence of life itself. From such a condition Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy has brought many to completely restored health and happiness. It is known and prized in every section of this broad land.

The Westminster Paper Company at New Westminster is operating its plant 24 hours a day with a staff of 100 men in order to keep up with its orders. An Oil That Is Prized Everywhere.—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil was put upon the market without any flourish over fifty years ago. It was put up to meet the wants of a small section, but as soon as its merits became known it had a whole continent for a field, and it is now known and prized throughout this continent. There is nothing equal to it.

for ANY CHILD

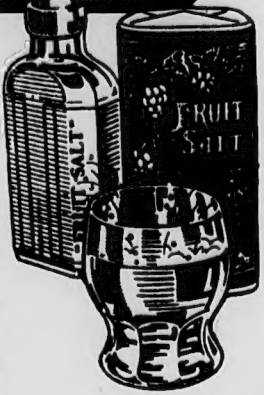

WE can never be sure just what makes a child restless, but the remedy can always be the same. Good old Castoria! There's comfort in every drop of this pure vegetable preparation, and not the slightest harm in its frequent use. As often as your child has a fretful spell, is feverish, or cries and can't sleep, let Castoria soothe and quiet him. Sometimes it's a touch of colic. Sometimes constipation. Or diarrhea—a condition that should always be checked without delay. Just keep Castoria handy, and give it promptly. Relief will follow very promptly; if it doesn't, you should call a physician.

ENO'S "FRUIT SALT"

Doctors Warn Against Drastic Purgatives

Physicians know the danger of using cheap cathartics that create a harsh, unnatural intestinal activity. They know that ENO'S "Fruit Salt" is more than a laxative. It is a delicious health beverage that sweetens and tones up the entire system—and that its daily use—just a dash in a glass of water, every morning—is an aid to vigorous good health.

"I believe," he said, turning with mock severity to Gay, "that you've been telling on me."

Simeon Bartlett chuckled as he replied: "She ain't told nothin' I didn't know beforehand, boy. You've got a sort o' conquerin' way about you. If you hadn't, do you b'lieve this little gal would ha' picked up her duds and started off at a minute's notice?"

"It was thirty minutes," Nick corrected, "and she didn't keep me waiting either! Well, we must be off. A thousand thanks, Mr. Bartlett, for this happy week."

"Good luck!" called Simeon Bartlett as they strode away.

And good luck had followed them. Through the whole summer, rain came during the night. With few exceptions their days were bright and sparkling. They struck off through picturesque New Hampshire, sleeping at farms when the chance came; often spending their nights beneath the stars; and once accepting the hospitality of a Gypsy camp.

September found them in Maine, revelling in those first beautiful days that only at night give a hint of the colder days to come. They had climbed what their hostess of the night before had called "a mountain," which, though hardly deserving the name, showed them a wonderful, wide stretch of creaming waves.

"I'd almost forgotten that I loved the sea," said Nick. "Gay! let's set sail for a warmer clime! There's money enough yet to take us South—or shall it be the big southwest we've dreamed about: Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico—deserts and mountains—canyons and waterfalls—California and the Pacific? Oh, my dear! Isn't it glorious to be free?"

Free? It was then that fear clutched at the girl's heart. She was seated upon the ground, but Nick stood, his back to the wide expanse of blue, his hair blown away from his forehead, an open shirt revealing his strong young throat. As she looked up at him Gay thought that Simeon Bartlett had been right—Nick had a conquering air about him. To think of shutting him up in that stuffy corner of the bank again seemed as cruel as clipping the wings of an eagle. Yet, she thought, with a quickening of her heart, even an eagle has its nest.

"Nick," she said, as he dropped beside her, "do—do you ever have the least, tiny desire to settle down?"

He smiled, and quoted:

"Who has not felt how sadly sweet, The dream of home, the dream of home."

"My dear girl, of course I think of settling down, as you prosaically put it; but not yet. We set out for the ends of the earth, if I remember rightly, and we've reached only the edge of the Atlantic! Settle down! Gay, are you crazy, or—Why, what's the matter?"

She looked up, bravely fighting back the tears, and said: "Nothing, Nick. I—Then so softly he had to bend to hear: "Nick dear—I can't go on."

"Can't go on! Have I tired you out, or—Oh, Gay!"

He knew, then. The knowledge came with a blinding sense of chaos. Wonder and dismay went hand in hand. New-stirring fatherly pride fought savagely with a sense of dull defeat. Then love triumphed over self, and he thought only of Gay—fear for her—terror for what she was to go through.

Was she glad, or—His clasped hands tightened, and he pulled himself together to hear her say:

"You mustn't feel too bad about it, dear old boy. I—I've thought out everything. I'm going back, but you are to go on. No! don't speak. I can't go back to Bakersville alone, Nick. That would be too hard. But I can stay with Mr. Bartlett. He'd like to have me—somehow I know I could give him pleasure. It—it won't be till spring, Nick, and perhaps by then you—"

Oh, my dear," she broke off suddenly, "I should be so happy if I felt that you were happy! But you won't be satisfied unless you're free, Nick, and—"

"Free!" Nick tossed the word aside as impulsively as he had tossed his stick and bundle on that bright May morning. "Free! and you back there with that old man!" He put his arms about her. "What sort of freedom would it be, Gay, darling? What do you take me for? Do you think I haven't any natural instincts—that I can't be happy over this as well as you? What a goose you are! Have you been losing sleep because you were afraid to tell me that our wanderings are at an end?"

He kissed her with a tenderness that brought her tears, even as she protested: "But it mustn't be the end for you, dear. There's no reason—"

"There's the best of reasons," he insisted. "I tell you what, Gay" (he was, to all appearances, enthusiastic), "we'll go back by train and hire 'The Bird's Nest' of Mr. Bartlett. We'll stay there through October; then, if nothing more interesting turns up, there's the bank, you know, with a raise waiting for me whenever I want to claim it. John Maxwell told me so before I came away. As for 'the ends of the earth,' dear—why worry about something that'll keep? We'll have it to look forward to, you know."

Through her tears Gay threw him a look of gratitude; but further arguments proved futile.

"No, I shan't leave you," Nick decreed soberly. "I should feel like a slacker. Dear, don't worry about my disappointment. Remember these glorious weeks we've had, and which we'll always have to remember and look back upon. We can't escape responsibilities forever."

"But," she hesitated, "I—I hate to be the one to bring them to you, Nick."

He smiled, and taking her handkerchief, dried her tears as if she were a child.

"There! you're not to cry another tear. As for those responsibilities, dear girl, I brought them on myself. I made you come with me. I didn't give you time to consider these possible complications. I didn't consider 'em myself. But do you imagine that I'd have things different now? Look back on the days we've had together and answer that!"

"Oh, Nick," she said, while comfort swept through her heart in a healing flood, "if I could know that you'd always feel so! But you've only begun to stretch your wings, and who knows how long it will be before you can roam again? Nick, promise me something—promise you'll tell me if the time comes when you feel you must have more freedom. I—I couldn't bear to think that you were tugging at your leash."

"I promise," Nick answered soberly, meeting her mood; then added with all the confidence of youth: "But the time won't come."

Two days later an amazed and beaming Simeon Bartlett, arose from a big rocker on his front porch, and greeted them with all the cordiality of a long-lost uncle.

"Jiminy Crickets! I was just wonderin' about you. Ain't had a card since you left Portland. Thought maybe you'd took the train for some fur-off port, or set sail for the Fiji Islands. And here you be, turnin' in my own front gate! Set down, ma'am. You're a sight for sore eyes, both o' you; but what in thunderation brings you back ahead o' time?"

Gay flushed, but Nick answered readily: "Only the time-worn and unquenchable desire for 'Home Sweet Home.' In other words, we want to hire your camp, and when cold weather drives us out we'll go back to Bakersville, and the stately portals of the First National Bank. May we have the cabin, Mr. Bartlett?"

"It ain't for rent—not at no price whatever; but you're welcome to use it long as you see fit. But first you got to visit with me a spell, and tell me all about your travels. I ain't had a thing interestin' happen since you left. Many's the evenin', ma'am, that I've set here thinkin' o' that chowder, and the good time you give me, to say nothin' of all them post-cards you sent back, an' letters, too. I saved 'em all. They're in the lacquer box my great-uncle Ebenezer Bartlett brought from Japan. Don't hardly see how you got a chance to write 'em, ma'am."

"We usually manage to do the things we want to do," Gay answered, "and I wanted you to know what a wonderful time we were having."

"Don't regret your hasty bargain, then?" chuckled the old man.

"Not yet," said Gay, with a sweet, upward glance at Nick that was not lost upon their host.

"And Nick?" queried Simeon, his eyes twinkling. "Sorry you ain't wadin' in the Pacific, boy—or be you satisfied to come back to old New England?"

"I've never set foot out of New England yet," laughed Nick, "and some day I shall wade in the Pacific. As for being satisfied—you ask Gay if she's heard any complaints on my part."

Free Freight Policy

Westerners Can Ship Breeding Stock Free Of Freight Charges Under Certain Conditions

Major the Honorable Robert Weir, Federal Minister of Agriculture, has announced a new free freight policy whereby heifers suitable for breeding stock bought by bona fide farmers and cattlemen at stockyards west of Fort William will be returned to the buyer's farm or ranch freight free. Application should be made to the nearest stockyard for the benefits of the policy. The concession extends to carloads of not less than twenty heifers to be used for breeding purposes only, to be, so far as possible, of the same type and breed and to be not more than twenty-four months old. Free freight is obtained on the certificate of the authorized stockyards representative of the Dominion Live Stock Branch at point of purchase. It entitles the shipper to have his car of breeding stock billed to his home station free of freight charges. The railway company assumes 25 per cent. of the freight and the Dominion Live Stock Branch the balance.

Woman's Fortitude

Forces Herself To Smile Through Pain

"I never seem to find time to rest," says many an overworked housewife. Under smiles and forced cheerfulness she conceals weariness and nervous depression; headaches and backaches. Often she is in real pain, but still refuses to give up. This very fortitude is apt to be her undoing. If she continues to neglect the signals of distress she will sooner or later suffer a serious breakdown.

A noted doctor has stated that nine-tenths of the ills of womanhood are due to poor blood. That anaemia is the cause of the low spirits, the poor appetite and palpitation that make life a burden for so many.

There is no need, however, for women to suffer in this way. All the miseries of anaemia can be banished by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These Pills create an abundance of new, rich, red blood and this new blood will bring strength and vitality to nervous, overworked women. The Pills are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Montreal Largest Inland Port

It is expected that the improved ship channel in the River St. Lawrence as far as Montreal, giving a 35-foot depth for ocean liners, will be completed by 1934. This will enable liners of 20,000 tons gross to sail to Montreal, 1,000 miles from the Atlantic, the largest inland port in the world.

"O turn unto me, and have mercy upon me; give Thy strength unto Thy servant."—Psalm lxxxvi. 16.

I come to Thee, O Lord, for strength and patience

To do Thy Will; Help me, O Father, in this world of duty

My place to fill.

It is so difficult to bear with patience and allowance the faults of others. It is very mistaken to think that the great occasions of life only demand religious feelings and principles; it is in the everyday petty annoyances, the constant call upon our charity, forbearance, and meekness, that we feel the constant want of some stronger and more powerful stimulant than the feeling of the moment to smooth down the rubs of life, and make our existence one of peace and happiness.—Maria Hare.

Burnside Notes

Burnside U.F.A. annual meeting to be held next Monday evening, December 8th.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Thompson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Cornie Stumpf.

Messrs. Joe Clarke and Ralph Long spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Morden.

Burnside S.D. 828 are holding their Xmas entertainment in the school on Tuesday evening, December 23rd.

Mrs. Joe Clarke is spending a couple of weeks at Arrowood, visiting her sister, Mrs. Mackie, and son Jack, who attends High School there.

The roads have been ideal for hauling grain and coal lately, and most of the grain is out, and most of the cellars filled with coal from Three Hills, Ghost Pine, and Sunnyslope.

A quartette, which included Bruce Shiels and Jack Stuart, returned on Saturday night from their hunt, and report splendid success, each having got his animal.

There is to be a concert, followed by a short dance, under the auspices of Burnside U.F.A., in Lone Pine Hall on Friday evening December 5th. Lunch, consisting of cake and coffee will be served, and a good program is promised. Admission: Adults, 25c. School-children over 12, 15c., under 12, free. Ladies are asked to kindly bring cake.

WESTCOTT W.I.

Westcott W.I. met at the home of Mrs. Ed Klinck on November 27th. An old-fashioned program was much enjoyed by all. The ladies were attired in old-fashioned clothes, and gave old songs and recitations. A very interesting feature was the telling of early experiences by Mrs. Isaac Levagood, and a few other old residents. A contest, followed by the singing of the national anthem, brought the meeting to a close, after which the hostess served lunch. The December meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Perrin, and as this is the business meeting, all members are asked to make a special effort to be present.

Melvin Notes.

Mrs. O. O. Swingle is spending the holidays with her family here.

Miss Marion Leeson is spending a few days under the parental roof.

Miss Edith Cipperley spent a few days with Miss Ethel Krebs, before going to Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Youngs visited Mr. and Mrs. N. Hughes, of Cremona, one day this week.

The chicken supper given last Wednesday night by the Go-Getters was a great success. We hope they will serve another such supper in the near future.

Miss Winifred Brown returned on Saturday from her home in Manitoba, where she attended her father's funeral. Miss Brown wishes to thank the School, Go-Getters Club, and all others for their kind letters and words of sympathy.

LOCAL & GENERAL

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Wigglesworth, on Thursday, December 11th, at 8 pm. A message on Christmas Cheer will be given by Mrs. Hallman. Members and friends welcome.

"The Manger Glory" is the title of the sacred cantata, now under preparation for the Christmas program in the Evangelical Church. This is an entirely new production, never rendered in public before. It introduces a number of new Bible features in the dramatization of the Christmas story. It is not only dramatic, but appealing as well. The music, though pathetic at times, rises to highest notes of jubilant exultation. Watch for further announcements.

The local branch of the Canadian Legion are arranging to give a Christmas tree entertainment for the children of all ex-soldiers, on Saturday, December 20th, at 3 p.m. The cost of the entertainment is being borne by the Legion, local members, and friends. Arrangements have been made to have Santa Claus come down from the North Pole, and a good entertainment will be provided. The names of all ex-soldiers' children should be handed in to Mr. C. S. Mortimer, Mr. H. Morgan, or Mr. J. H. Lowrie.

CARD OF THANKS

Hugh Brooke and all members of his family wish to express sincere appreciation for the help and assistance of friends and neighbors, so generously given, and efficiently rendered, when their home caught fire recently, and which, no doubt, would have been a total loss, but for their help. Also, many thanks to the local telephone staff for their system of broadcast.
